EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Marriage of Miss Hagner and Mr. James Tomorrow Afternoon.

Leech-Wanner Wedding at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.—Bridge Party for Brides-to-Be—Personals.

The marriage of Miss Isabella L. Hagner and Mr. Normal James of Baltimore will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. John's Church. Only the members of the two families and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Roland Cotton Smith.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Francis Randall Hagner, will be unattended. The fact that Mr. James' son, Charles McGill James, who is at Phillips Academy, Exeter, Mass., is ill with typhoid has hastened the plans for the wedding and Mr. James and his bride will go at once to Exeter instead of taking the trip to California for their honeymoon.

The marriage of Miss Joanna Wanner of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., formerly of this city, and Mr. John E. Leech of 1754 Massachusetts avenue, this city, took place Saturday, October 30, at the Bonnie Mac cottage, at the Misses Masters' School in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

The bride, who has been the superintendent of the infirmary at the school for the past three years, is a graduate of the Garfield Hospital Training School in this city and has filled responsible posts in that institution and others in New York city. Mr. Leech, who is a well known resident of this city, is a member of the Metropolitan, Chevy Chase and University clubs. Mr. and Mrs. Leech will spend the winter in their apartment at Atlantic City. The Leech residence will not be reopened here until next season.

The minister of Bulgaria and Mme. Parmetoff will take possession of the residence 2131 Massachusetts avenue, which they have leased for the winter, this week.

Miss Dorothy Taylor entertained at a bridge party, followed by tea, this afternoon in compliment to Miss Mildred Gatewood and Miss Julia Heyl, brides of the near future.

A Halloween party was held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Wood, Brandywine street, Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Wood was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Ludewig, Mrs. Shoemaker and Mrs. Crawford.

The entire lower floor of the house was decorated with autumn foliage, and illuminated with a dim green light.

Demons, ghosts, skeletons and goblins also formed part of the decoration. The guests, disguised as spooks and witches, marched to the dining room, where the refreshments were served.

A feature of the evening was an entertainment given by four guests, whose identity was not disclosed. One representing a cowboy, gave several vocal solos; two others gave selections on the piano and accordion, and the fourth, in gypsy costume, told fortunes for the guests.

Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, who is spending the autumn at White Sulphur Springs, entertained Mrs. Joseph E. W. O'Connell of Philadelphia and Mrs. Lily M. Lee of Baltimore at dinner last night, prior to their departure to New York.

Rev. George W. Atkinson, Jr., rector of Grace Church, Georgetown, has returned from New York city, where he went to officiate at the wedding of his cousin, Miss Diantha Rich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Allan Fitch, and Mr. Connor Lawrence, in St. Bartholomew's Church Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Atkinson will remain in New York a few days to visit friends.

Miss Etta Louise Taggart is entertaining at a tea this afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Sankey Bacon.

Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. William Phillips spent the week end with the assistant secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Andrew J. Peters at their residence on Woodley lane.

Gen. and Mrs. James B. Alekhieff are again at their residence, 2343 S street. The information in a recent social item of the death of Mrs. Alekhieff's mother is devoid of fact, and the Star in correcting the misstatement greatly regrets its use.

Mrs. Charles Hoyle and Miss Mary Hoyle have gone to St. Louis for the funeral of their son and brother, George Hoyle, who died at the family residence here, 2021 Kalorama road, October 28, after a long illness. Mr. Hoyle was the son of the late Charles Hoyle of St. Louis and a nephew of Mrs. John Hays Hammond.

A Halloween party was given Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Howison of Capitol Hill in honor of Miss Yola Payne of Chesterbrook, Va., who is their house guest for the week end. Among those present were Misses Madolin Smithson, Lilla Smithson, Eleanor Henderson, Alice Henderson, Evelyn Owl, Maud Warner, Sue Ratcliffe, Gladys King, Julia Tilton Verena, Marjorie and Dorothy Howison and Mrs. Beer and Messrs. Tom Wilkins, Ray Ratcliffe, I. Freeman, J. C. Parke, Mr. Yesso, Masters Paul Garben, Louis Joyce and Brooke Howison.

Friday evening, October 27, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stickle of 3407 Evans street, Brentwood, Md., celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. A large gathering of their friends were present. After supper was served dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Stickle received many handsome presents.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Stickle, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Link, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Beamer, Mr. and Mrs. G. Beamer, Mr. and Mrs. George Mack, Mr. and Mrs. W. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sando, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stickle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. O. Peltier, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ohlendorf, Mr. and Mrs. L. Frisard, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frenzel, Mr. F. A. Beamer, Mrs. L. Cleaves, Mrs. E. Eber, Mrs. D. Blum, Mrs. G. Tovey, Mrs. Klein, Mrs. G. Plummer, Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. J. Ernest, Mrs. Laughton, Mrs. P. Hoffman, Mrs. P. Chisney, Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Ed Sando, Miss H. Stickle, Miss H. Doherty, Miss Louise Beamer, Mrs. I. Jenkins, Mrs. F. Chisney, Mr. F. Hagner, Mr. B. Holter, Mr. and Mrs. G. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meiry and Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoffman.

Mrs. R. K. Hammaker entertained at a Halloween party Friday evening at her home in Mount Rainier in honor of her daughter. The house was tastefully decorated with autumn foliage and ferns and dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening.

A novel masquerade dance was given at the residence of Miss Theresa Matthews Saturday evening. Dancing was enjoyed the greater part of the evening, during which an eccentric scarf dance was given by Mr. Vernon Buck. The prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Mr. Russell Robertson and Miss Emma Hubbard. Among those present were Misses Blumer, French

GIFTS MADE TO COLLEGES.

General Education Board Announces Distribution of $375,000.

NEW YORK, November 1.—The general education board, one of John D. Rockefeller's philanthropic enterprises, has made gifts totaling $375,000 to four colleges and has provided the funds for a number of novel experiments in the field of education. The latter, which inaugurate a new departure in the activity of the board, include a scientific study of the Gary, Ind., scheme of public school education and of the Hampton Institute system, the results of which the board intends to make available for general use throughout the country.

The gifts are: Carlton College, Northfield, Minn., a Congregational Institution, $100,000; Hobbs College, Geneva, N. Y., Episcopalian, $50,000; Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., Presbyterian, $200,000; and Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Mich., Baptist, $25,000.

SATISFIED WITH CAREER.

Former Secretary Bryan Tells Friends Not to Pity Him.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, November 1.—In a speech for prohibition at a mass meeting yesterday William Jennings Bryan told an audience not to pity him for his "unsuccessful political career." "Sometimes my friends have expressed their sympathy to me because of what they termed the unsuccessfulness of my political career," said Mr. Bryan. "Why, they shouldn't do that. Since I've been in politics reforms have been accomplished without the loss of a single life that would have cost thousands of lives in sacrifice 200 years ago. 'Pity me?' Don't do it. If I had lived two centuries ago and advocated what I do now I would have been hanged. No one has accomplished any great reforms without being abused and ostracized at first. But when a man believes he is in the right he must speak out."

LARGEST MONTHLY RETURNS.

Earnings of Pennsy Lines East of Pittsburgh in September.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., November 1.—The net earnings of the Pennsylvania railroad lines east of Pittsburgh for the month of September, amounting to $1,223,021, were the largest for any one month in the history of the company, while the gross earnings of $20,817,361 have been exceeded only twice. For the months of August and October, 1913, the gross earnings were slightly larger. The net earnings for September exceeded those for the last month last year by nearly one and a half million dollars.

The company attributes the large earnings to an extraordinarily heavy traffic in the eastern part of the country as a result of the shipment of almost every kind of manufactured materials for use in European countries.

STAND BY PASTOR.

Congregation Backs Rev. Dr. Hillis in Controversy.

NEW YORK, November 1.—The board of trustees of Plymouth Church in Brooklyn have voted to stand by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of that church, in his controversy with Frank L. Ferguson, formerly his attorney and business manager, according to an announcement today by Col. W. C. Beecher, chairman of the board. "Dr. Hillis will not resign," said Col. Beecher. "We have decided not to let Dr. Hillis be trampled upon. I cannot say what effect this will have upon Dr. Hillis' agreement with Mr. Ferguson to keep their differences out of court by arbitration."

PLAN CHILDREN'S SAFETY.

Fire and Police Commissioners of N. Y. Will Test Experiment.

NEW YORK, November 1.—The fire and police commissioners of the city will test Tuesday night an experiment to determine whether children can be kept off the streets, out of mischief and out of the way of harm during election night. Parents and children have been invited to attend entertainments in two public school buildings, where, under the direction of the two city departments, election returns will be shown, together with moving pictures of police maneuvers, games and all kinds of police duty. A film intended to show the dangers of locked doors in public buildings will be shown by the fire department.

Shortly after he had returned from the theater Saturday night, Elmer Bernhard, fifty-four, a Baltimore advertising agent, was seized with a coughing spell and died before medical aid could reach him.
